Respected Sir,

I respectfully beg to represent that Govt having been pleased to grant me a house bu advance to enable me to build a hou in the Mallesvaram Extension, I ha accordingly purchased a site and hav put up a small house. It has no comfortable accomodation and has not even a convenient kitchen and bathroom. The temporary kitche now occupied is very small and inconvenient. Besides the recent heavy rains have caused great damage and many of the rafters having been eaten away by white ants, the house is now in danger of being much ramaged. Under such circumstances, I humbly beg that I may be granted a second advance of six months pay ~~[illegible]~~ to enable me to complete the Construction of the house so that it may be Comfortably habitable The first advance sanctioned to me had been fully adjusted.

I have also insured my life and my bonus amounts to about Rs 900/-

I beg to remain Sir Respectfully Your most obedt & humble Servant to make these advances, as alll the advances have been cleared or very nearly so, and the fact of some of them being encumbered by mortgages does not deteriorate from their value and the extra building will enchance it and eventually help to pay off the present encrumbrances.

I have the honor to be,

Sir;

Inspection report on the house of Kuppusawmy Iyengar, clerk Rev: & Gl. Secretariat Situated in Malleswara Extension

I inspected this house on the 31st Ultimo. The owner was present at the time of inspection From the Books of this office it is found that the original advance of Rs 300/- has been fully adjusted.

Improvements suggested by the owner on constructing a Kitchen, dining hall, a small room adjacent to the Kitchen for purposes of worship paving the floor with tiles & plastering the front & rear Compound walls.

The rough valuation of the house is about Six hundred rupees.

The owner alleges that the house is free from encumbrances.

It is submitted that the advance applied for may be granted.
